The Hygiene Continuing Care Check-up:

What Can I Expect?

Dental offices are happy to provide their patients with the utmost in oral hygiene care. Your comprehensive dental care is the number one goal. Please take a moment to thoroughly review the process of the hygiene continuing care check-up.

- Examination of teeth to detect decay
- Inspection of existing fillings and/or crowns for leaks or cracks
- Evaluation of gum tissue conditions • Evaluation of biting patterns • Periodontal screening
 - Necessary x-rays for detecting decay, bone loss, and oral pathologies (diseases)
 - Head and neck oral cancer screening
- Tooth polishing as determined by doctor's recommendation based on the patient's present oral health conditions
- Scaling procedure for individuals in normal/good periodontal health (removes plaque, calculus, and stains to prevent caries and periodontal disease)
- Proper brushing and flossing instructions • Application of fluoride as necessary
- Presentation of necessary dental treatment • Treatment plan for necessary work to be completed
- Discussion of recommended time periods between hygiene re-care appointments

IT ISN'T JUST A CLEANING
IT IS ABOUT YOUR ORAL HEALTH
